

BAYAN HAMMADEH

Back End Developer

Back-end developer with 5+ years of back-end development. Build web applications, which are fit for purpose, functionally correct and meets the user's precise needs. I have a record of accomplishment of using new technologies to bring software products to life. On a personal level, I am full of energy and passion. Right now, I would like to join a company where there is a culture of encouragement, respect and teamwork.
